

Satellite radio has immeasurably improved my 45 minute commute each day. I can finally hear classical music - something that is missing on local airwaves. I also listen to the traffic channel, which unlike the local "all news all the time" one, actually has traffic conditions where I live and not just in the East Bay and San Jose.

It is worth the money I pay each month for this service.

Please do not limit it!